Scott & Meghan Dillon #11823

www.soarchrist.com

Scott and Meghan sensed a call to Peru in 2005 while on a week-long trip with their church. After serving two and a half years as part of the team in the legendary city of Cusco, they made the decision to return to Peru as career missionaries to continue the work of church planting and orphan-care ministries.

The Dillons work closely with an MTW-planted church that is currently without a pastor and that sits in one of Cusco's lower-income neighborhoods. Scott ministers alongside national church leaders by providing leadership development through personal discipleship and training courses. The hope is that the current church will grow and eventually be able to assist in planting another church body in Cusco.

Scott and Meghan also have the privilege of assisting in an orphanage started by their team members in 2009. The Josephine House is a home for children who have been born into difficult situations of abuse, abandonment, or poverty.

Please pray for Scott and Meghan as they minister in Cusco, that God would work through them to bring the grace and truth of the gospel to the Peruvians.

Rachel (7/3/07), Mark (5/21/09), and Penelope (12/8/10).
